

Sixteenth Annual Workshop for Dairy Economists and Policy Analysts hosted by the National Dairy Markets and Policy Extension Education Committee

A Project of the National Institute for Livestock and Dairy Policy, a cooperative project of the Cornell Program on Dairy Markets and Policy and the Texas A&M Agricultural and Food Policy Center

Welcome to our Workshop

The Underlying Design and Objective

- ↪ An opportunity for industry experts in dairy markets, pricing and policy to talk about important issues, share thoughts and ideas, and learn from and with each other

Educational Objectives:

1. Better understand the scope and characteristics of dairy markets in some key and representative countries around the world
2. Think about where the global dairy industry is headed in the next 10 years
3. Learn about the dimensions of world trade in dairy products, pricing, and the current and future role of the US
4. Review the status of current WTO and multilateral trade policy developments and think about their implications.

prepared by A.M. Novakovic

Agenda and Rules of Order

1. Review of the Global Dairy Industry
2. Dairy Trade and Marketing Dairy Products
3. Trade Policy
4. The Development Dairy Policy - The intersection of history, politics, and economics

Much as we love to hear ourselves talk...the goal is active learning

Talk, Interact, Ask, Volunteer, Debate

prepared by A.M. Novakovic
